1. At eight p.m. on 3 November fire broke out in the Central Cooperative, situated near the villages of Fundoni and Franzinoti in Ilfor County, which supplies approximately twenty cooperatives in neighboring villages. The building of masonry construction containing fourteen rooms burned until two p.m. the following day. Approximately three and one-half freight cars of merchandise were destroyed. The entire building appeared to burst into flames at one time.
2. After an investigation by the State Security, fifteen persons were placed under arrest.
